Students' starring role in New Year's Day parade

ALL ABOARD: Barking and Dagenham College students in the float they designed and built for London's New Year's Day parade

CREATIVE students at Barking and Dagenham College designed and constructed a float for London's New Year's Day parade.

They represented the London Borough of Barking and Dagenham in the televised competition against other boroughs in the capital.

The theme for this year's parade was Roll Up! Roll Up! to the Greatest Show on Earth!

The college's interpretation of the theme was Feel the Magic up Close with a float of a circus travelling into town.

Creative arts students completed work experience drawing, designing and painting to a client brief sent from the London Mayor's office. Carpentry and painting and decorating students helped with the construction of the designs.

Paul Schofield, curriculum manager at the college, said: "This has been an excellent demonstration of a creative technician-led project involving all of our students in construction and engineering industries to bring together a design build that maximises the float's possibilities and represents the energy of the students."

More than 8,500 performers representing 20 countries took part the New Year's Day parade.

Murder victim, 20, named locally as police bid to trace witnesses

APPEAL OVER STAB KILLING

THE man stabbed in West Ham on New Year's Eve has been named locally as Taofeek Lamidi.

Police officers were called to Memorial Avenue at 7.37pm on December 31.

The 20-year-old, who would have turned 21 on January 2, was found suffering from multiple stab injuries.

Police officers and London

Ambulance Service paramedics tried to resuscitate him but he was pronounced dead at 8.22pm.

The stabbing was one of four unrelated fatal knife attacks across London on New Year's Eve and early into New Year's Day.

A murder investigation was launched by the Met's homicide and major crime command under DCI Will Reynolds.

DCI Reynolds said: "This attack has robbed a young man of his future and robbed a family of their loved one."

"The victim was with a number of people at the time of the attack, and I urgently need to trace this group of young men."

"Memorial Avenue is a busy residential area close to West Ham station.

"I know that there were people in the area who witnessed the incident, and I also need them to come forward."

Anyone who witnessed the stabbing or has information that may assist the police investigation should call the incident room on 020 8721 4005 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Council ignores Local Plan policies

DOES Redbridge Council support social segregation? Is it content that some people may become second class citizens? Why does Redbridge ignore its own Local Plan policies?

At its meeting on December 20, 2017, Redbridge planning committee approved an application by the Southern Housing Group to redevelop the site of the former Avenue pub at Eastern Avenue, Newbury Park with a dense residential scheme.

There are three main blocks fronting Eastern Avenue which range in height from six to ten storeys. Seven Kings and Newbury Park Residents' Association, whilst not opposing the residential redevelopment of this site, has objected to various aspects of the Southern Housing Group scheme, not least being the ten-storey block.

The residents' association has argued that this part of Newbury Park is not a designated Tall Buildings Zone in neither the draft Local Plan nor in the current Borough Plan.

The association suggested that the 10-storey block should be reduced in height by two floors with the "lost" flats being provided by increasing the height of the six-storey block.

Apparently, this is not possible because Southern Housing Group wants the social rented, shared ownership and private sale flats in separate blocks with separate entrances.

It was suggested at the planning meeting that this was necessary for management purposes and because tenants of the social rented flats could not afford the level of maintenance to be given to the other blocks.

Does this mean that the tenants of the rented flats will be treated as second class citizens with a reduced level of building maintenance? Clearly this would be social segregation.

Is this a future Grenfell Tower?

Not only is the former pub site not in a Tall Buildings Zone, at the planning committee meeting, officers admitted that the 10-storey block did not satisfy the tests set out in the draft Local Plan.

Additionally, the council's own highways officers objected to the scheme because of its lack of sufficient on-site car parking spaces.

Notwithstanding, the committee saw fit to ignore both the draft Local Plan (which has recently been through the proper statutory processes, including public consultations and an examination in public) and the current Borough Plan, and approved this scheme.

This appears to be a clear example of the council deciding that its own statutorily decided policies do not apply to its own decision-making. It has certainly failed in its duty to properly represent the residents of the borough.

It is clear to us that this is an issue which should be examined by the appropriate council scrutiny committee – but, of course, that would require the council to follow its own rules.

David Stephens
Chairman, Seven Kings and Newbury Park Residents' Association

Barnado's appeal for volunteers

WE would like to urge your readers to make a New Year's resolution to become part of a team that helps support vulnerable children in London.

As the UK's leading children's charity, we're looking for people to volunteer in our 36 London shops and to help us raise money to support our local projects working with disadvantaged children, young people and their families.

By giving us a little of your spare time, you will gain invaluable experience that could provide a stepping stone to a new career or an opportunity to add to your personal statement for college or university.

We also offer a chance to get out of the house, make new friends and have fun by joining the team at your local Barnardo's store.

Volunteering is also a great way to build confidence and an opportunity to try new things. Our volunteers, who are all ages and come from all walks of life, are given full training and on-going support.

To find out more about volunteering with Barnardo's, please pop into your local Barnardo's store, visit the website at www.barnardos.org.uk/volunteering, email London-VolunteeringEnquiries@barnardos.org.uk or call us on 020 8498 7320.

Thank you, we look forward to meeting you in 2018.

More local bobbies for area

WALTHAM Forest, Redbridge and Barking and Dagenham are to have more neighbourhood police officers after the Mayor of London appointed 526 dedicated ward officers to police London.

Sadiq Khan's policing strategy will see at least two dedicated PCs and a Police Community Support Officer in place in every London neighbourhood.

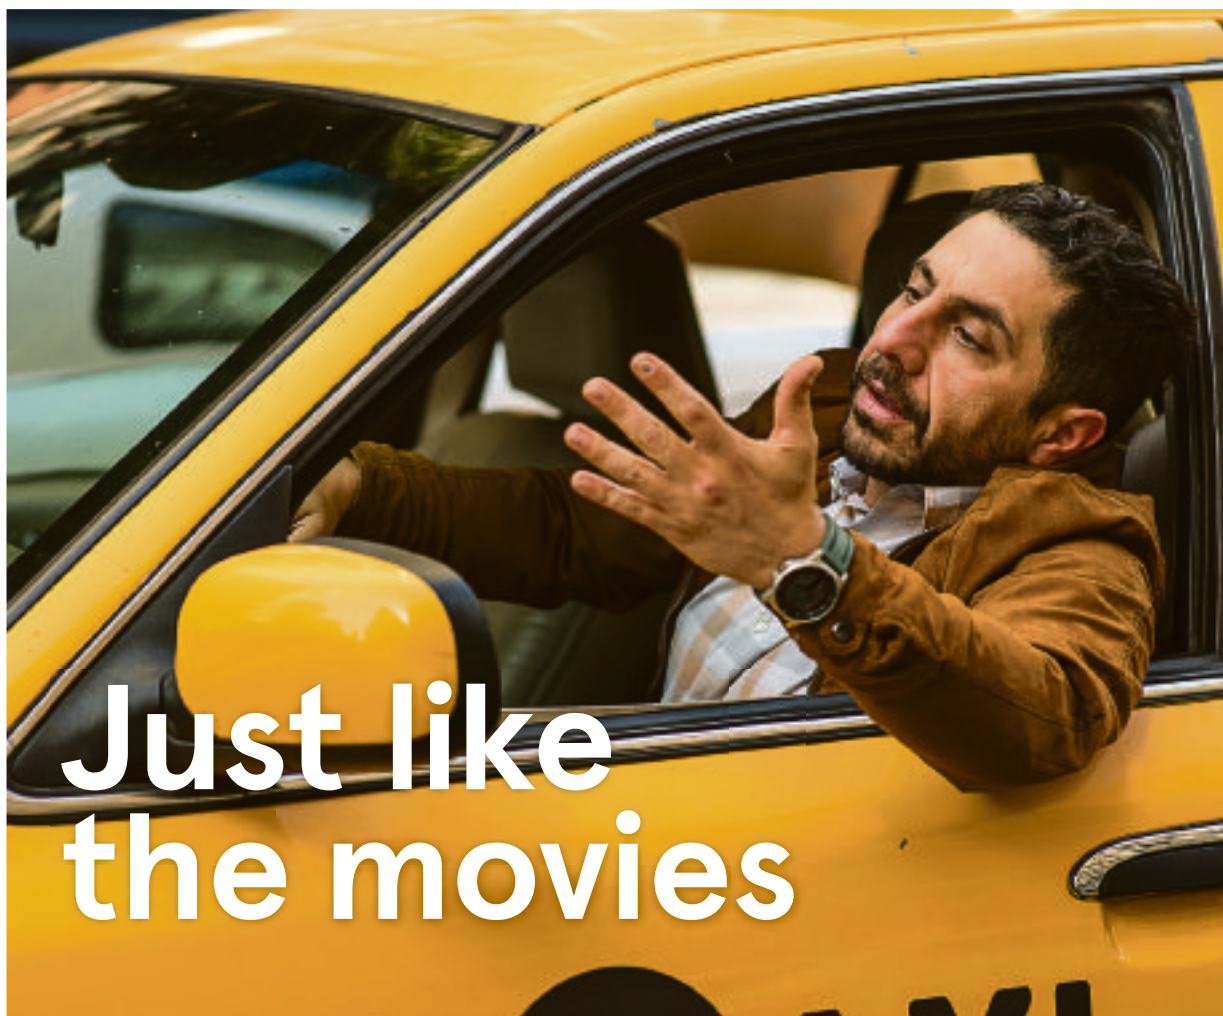

London has 629 wards – smaller sections of parliamentary constituencies – and Waltham Forest is split into 20 wards.

Until last year most wards had just one dedicated PC and one PCSO, with two PCs in around 100 of the areas with the highest demand.

Mr Khan said: "My top priority as mayor is keeping Londoners safe, and this starts with real neighbourhood policing."

"At a time when the Met is dealing with unprecedented pressures due to the Government's huge funding cuts and the shift in the threat of terrorism, neighbourhood policing is more important than ever."

Man steals £920 from woman in bank

POLICE have appealed for witnesses following a theft at NatWest bank in Barking.

A 46-year-old woman visited the branch in East Street at noon on September 16.

As she joined the queue an Asian woman, in her 20s with long straight brown hair, grey beanie hat, grey top, grey track-suit trousers and black shoes, started talking to her.

CCTV shows a man bending down and removing an envelope from her bag while she was distracted. He is of Eastern European appearance, in his 30s, with short black hair and short black beard. He wore a cream-coloured T-shirt, blue

FILM: A man takes an envelope as the woman is distracted

A third man watched the theft. He is Asian, in his 30s, with receding short dark hair.

He was wearing a black baseball cap, dark-coloured body warmer, grey tracksuit trousers and white trainers.

The trio left and the victim realised the envelope containing £920 was missing when she reached the cashier.

PC Matthew Trenfield-Brown described the distraction theft as "devious".

Anyone who can help police should contact East Area Command via 101, by Tweeting @MetCC, or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

KNOW THEM?: Police want to trace these men after disorder at a West Ham v Spurs game

Police seek six over football violence

POLICE have released images of six men they want to speak to in connection with violence and disorder at an EFL Cup tie between Tottenham Hotspur and West Ham United.

The match took place at Wembley Stadium on Wednesday, October 25.

Police said a number of officers were attacked as they tried to separate two groups of rival fans who were attempting to break through a set of concourse gates.

The six men in the images are all believed to be West Ham fans.

DS Matt Simpson, from the specialist crime and operations public order branch, said: "Violence towards police officers will not be tolerated and it was extremely fortunate that no one was badly injured."

"Supporters should be in no doubt that anyone involved in, or responsible for, the disorder will be dealt with robustly and once identified, we will seek to arrest them and put them before the courts."

Anyone who recognises any of the individuals pictured should contact the police investigation team by calling 020

8246 9386 or alternatively they can telephone Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Dream Doors is the one-stop shop for your perfect kitchen

IT'S a well known fact that buying a new kitchen can be a stressful experience.

Through conducting research by looking through magazines and searching online followed by days spent traipsing around shops, experiencing all the extremes of retailing in Britain: from the fairly helpful and honest to the high-pressure and hard to escape from.

And that's before a decision has even been made. Then there's the lengthy wait for the materials to arrive – hopefully on time – and preparing for one of the most used rooms in the house to be out of bounds (whilst the contents of your kitchen like the pots and pans are strewn throughout the house to make way for the new kitchen materials).

After which it's at least a week of dust and disruption, daily takeaways and a heavily diminished bank balance.

Thankfully customers in IG, RM and surrounding areas have a choice.

Instead of the major stress and upheaval of a new kitchen Dream Doors can use your existing carcasses – which can typically last for decades – and instead replace your outdated doors and surrounding trims.

A welcome alternative that is typically half the cost of an average new kitchen, can be delivered within a few months and fitted in as little as a day.

From its showroom in Redbridge Lane East, Dream Doors Loughton and Ilford supplies time and money saving kitchen makeovers – as well as appliances and complete new kitchens if required – all installed by approved and local kitchen fitters.

The business owned by Esther and Vinny is also a part of a national franchised network of Dream Doors showrooms that stretches all the way up to Glasgow.

"Major home improvement projects always seem daunting" says Vinny. "But there's far less upheaval with our kitchen makeovers.

"For a simple door swap we're in and out in a day, and for a facelift with worktops and a new sink, we'll need an extra day. By leaving the existing units in place and simply changing what can be seen, our customers get a kitchen that looks brand new, but without the outlay or the stress of a complete refurbishment"

He adds "All our doors are made-to-measure here in the UK and none are off-the-shelf. This means that when the order is taken, the doors are made specifically for that customer.

We'd highly recommend a visit to our showroom to view the large range of kitchen door styles, finishes and colours we have on display in addition to the various options when it comes to replacing your worktops.

"Once you've made your selections we'll come out to survey the existing kitchen and give an honest price for the work – with no hidden costs.

We will tailor a solution based on your requirements and work within your budget – we can do as little or as much as you want. All of our quotations are free and there is absolutely no pressure on the customer if they decide to wait or go elsewhere.

"We abhor some of the high pressure selling tactics other kitchen suppliers use to get you to sign a contract straight away".

Dream Doors asks for just a 50 percent deposit from customers on order and backs up the quality of its doors and labour with a comprehensive guarantee.

"We're part of a huge brand, the UK's biggest name in kitchen facelifts" says Esther.

"But unlike other national companies, our customers deal with a tightly knit team – including the business owner – and we believe this leads to truly great customer service."

DEFEAT PUTS PRESSURE ON BLUES BOSS

Football

AFC Wimbledon 2
Southend United 0
Sky Bet League One
By Rowland Lyons at the Cherry Red Records Stadium

LACKLUSTRE Southend are only four points off the drop zone after suffering a New Year's Day reverse at improving Wimbledon.

Liam Trotter and Tom Soares strikes eased the hosts to a comfortable win, with Southend boss Phil Brown fearing for his future and admitting: "I have the full backing of the chairman, but in tight situations like these it [the sack] is always in the back of your mind. I will see how far things go."

Despite a slow start, the Shrimpers almost took an audacious lead on 25 minutes, when the recalled Dru Yearwood tried his luck from 25 yards with a swerving effort that keeper George Long did well to catch at the first attempt.

Southend's progress was halted barely two minutes later when an unmarked Trotter appeared to mis-kick home his 10-yarder from Callum Kennedy's cross after the Shrimpers had opportunities to clear George Fracombe's free-kick.

Southend then failed to muster a decent reply, with Yearwood rounding off a good move, only to send in a poor cross.

Trotter and Harry Forrester wasted good opportunities shortly before the interval, as the Dons turned up the pressure.

There seemed no way back for the Shrimpers, when top scorer Taylor, whose flag-kick, two minutes after the turnaround, saw Soares get the vital touch to Trotter's goalbound effort despite Jason Demetriou's best efforts to clear, leaving Southend with a mountain to climb.

Brown made three changes, with the third, Jermaine McGlashan, almost making an instant impact with a 65th minute cross, that Simon Cox should have converted, but his close-range header flew harmlessly over Long's goal.

Wimbledon, with a weekend FA Cup date at Wembley against Spurs to look forward to, comfortably held out, with only Anthony Wordsworth off-target with an 80th minute free-kick, and McGlashan slicing wide three minutes from time.

A disappointed Brown said: "They defended properly – we didn't. We need to keep clean sheets. We only started playing after both their goals."

He added: "Only the players and myself can turn things around. The January transfer window is open. I'd like to make four changes. But people's livelihoods – the backroom staff – are at stake. I've pointed fingers at one or two players, they didn't like it. But, when players cross the line their livelihoods aren't at stake.

"At this moment in time we don't look like we're going to keep a clean sheet. We need to get that mentality."

"We let the travelling support down today, and they had plenty to say – of which I won't repeat."

Brown concluded: "Having seen three good men lose their jobs before today, if I'm still in charge for the Northampton game, then, I shall prepare the players in the best possible way."

Blues' defender Harry Kyprianou admitted: "Collectively, as a unit, we've got to do better. We conceded from two dead-ball situations today, just as we conceded from three corners, recently, at Scunthorpe."

"There is a frustration in the dressing room, but we must start pulling together and start performing better."

"But, one-nil down at half-time, we 'killed' ourselves going further behind after the break."

"We take one game at a time and that starts at Northampton on Saturday (kick-off 3pm)."

Home boss Neil Ardley added: "Our game plan worked today, and we thoroughly deserved the win."

Daggers and O's fight out a goalless draw

Dagenham & Redbridge 0
Leyton Orient 0
Brian Jeeves reporting from Victoria Road

DAGENHAM & REDBRIDGE and Leyton Orient had to be content with a share of the National League spoils after playing out a hard-fought goalless draw in front of a season's best crowd on New Year's Day.

Dagenham were certainly looking for an altogether more positive month. John Still's men slipped out of the play-off places following just one victory during December.

Nevertheless, a late goal from Mason Bloomfield had salvaged a point at Ebbsfleet United last time out, keeping the Daggers within a point of the coveted top-seven spots.

Orient travelled across east London looking for an immediate response to Saturday's defeat at the hands of Bromley at Brisbane Road. This was the O's first setback in five matches, a run which included a hard-fought 2-0 win over the Daggers on Boxing Day.

The Daggers were chasing their first competitive victory over the O's in 17 years, and they were almost behind in the opening seconds as Macauley Bonne was a whisker away from a telling contact after David Mooney fashioned an opening from the right.

Soon after, Daggers keeper Mark Cousins was called into action, turning over Josh Koroma's troublesome effort from eighteen yards.

Meanwhile, Matt Robinson's angled attempt drifted the wrong side of an upright as the home side offered a threat of their own.

It was certainly developing into a feisty affair. Danny Sparkes fired directly at O's stopper Dean Brill, while Luke Howell was too high with a strike from distance as the home side began to find their feet.

Sam Ling tested Brill's resolve, while Howell's glancing header was deflected behind as the home side continued to press. Only a superb save by Brill from Mason Bloomfield's close-range header kept the O's on terms as Dagenham started to control proceedings.

But Orient still possessed a threat of their own. Cousins, who had largely been a spectator since the early stages, was called upon to palm aside Craig Clay's stinging strike as the visitors looked for a breakthrough shortly before the interval.

Cousins was again in the thick of the action immediately after the break, somehow keeping out David Mooney's goalbound header, this after former Dagger, Joe Widdowson, had picked him out. Then, Bonne fired over following a sweeping move as Orient began the half with a flourish.

With the tempo ever increasing, the game became stretched, with clear-cut opportunities coming at a premium as the sides scrapped for an advantage.

Fejiri Okenabirhie passed up a glorious late chance for the Daggers, firing over from close range following a swift raid down the right.

Despite their robust toil, neither team was able to crystallise a decisive moment to clinch all three points, which was probably a fair outcome.

After the game, O's boss Justin

Edinburgh said: "I've just said to the players that they dug really deep. We've got a togetherness now, real belief. We did the ugly side of the game really well today."

"I couldn't have asked for any more."

Dagenham & Redbridge return to National League action on Saturday, January 6 when Hartlepool United are the visitors to Victoria Road (3pm). On the same day, Leyton Orient entertain Borehamwood in a National League encounter at Brisbane Road (3pm).

Teams see off the old year

By Brian Jeeves

GRAYS Athletic brought 2017 to its conclusion with an impressive 3-1 success over Bostik North play-off hopefuls Potters Bar Town at the Pakex Stadium.

Second-half goals from Jack Fowler, Bradley Sach and Adeyinka Cole ensured Grays the points. David Sota bagged a late consolation for the home side who had Billy Adcock sent off.

Oluwole Akinsanya, Joshua Pollard and Ryan Clampin were on target as Maldon & Tiptree came from behind to see off Haringey Borough 3-1.

Earlier, Ralston Gabriel had given the north Londoners the lead at the Wallace Binder ground.

Adam Vyse's late goal earned Tilbury the points with a 1-0 success at Cheshunt. Meanwhile, Waltham Abbey and Heybridge Swifts played out a thrilling 3-3 draw at Caperscotts. Billy Holland, Darelle Russell and Mitch Hahn on target for the home side as they recovered from a 3-0 deficit after Ricky Sappleton scored twice from the penalty spot, and Ruel Sotiriou added another as the Swifts seemingly took control during the opening period.

Barking and AFC Hornchurch played out a 1-1 draw at Mayesbrook Park. George Purcell gave the Urchins the lead from the spot. Tiob Adeyemi restored parity for the hosts midway through the second half. And it was the same outcome at Parkside where Aveley and AFC Sudbury shared the spoils.

Alex Teniola with the Millers goal, Mekhi McKenzie salvaging a point for the Suffolk side in the last minute.

There was a shock for promotion-chasing Bowers & Pitsea, who crashed 2-0 to struggling Ware at the Len Salmon Stadium. Marvin Hamilton and Sam Alderson with the visitors' goals.

However, poor weather conditions put pay to several Bostik North fixtures.

Brentwood Town v Soham Town Rangers, Bury Town v Witham Town, Dereham Town v Canvey Island and Romford v Norwich United will all need to be rescheduled in 2018.

Billericay Town missed out on an opportunity to extend their lead at the top of the Bostik Premier Division when their game with fellow promotion hopefuls, Dulwich Hamlet, was called off due to a waterlogged pitch at the AGP Arena.

Elsewhere, it was an afternoon to forget for the region's other Premier Division sides. Brightlingsea Regent slipped to a 3-0 home defeat against Tonbridge Angels and Thurrock completed a miserable sequence of results for our local sides, going down 2-0 at Dorking Wanderers.

In the National League, Matt Robinson's late goal salvaged a point for Dagenham & Redbridge at Ebbsfleet United.

Earlier, Jack Powell had given the Stonebridge Road side the advantage.

The Daggers local rivals, Leyton Orient, slipped to a single goal defeat at the hands of Bromley in front of a bumper crowd of 5,227 at Brisbane Road.

Bondz N'Gala was dismissed for the O's after five minutes following a foul on George Porter before Louis Dennis grabbed the only goal of the contest shortly after the 20-minute mark.
